

The product page contains a list of the products the website offers to costumers. It has a link to the home page what it entails. It has a link to the home page as well.

About us page gives a brief Contact Us page has a list of summary about business and telephone numbers and email addresses of the business. The page also has a physical complete the website. It has a address to the business and a map to give directions to its location

This page provides all the requirements needed to link to the Home page